

Let Us Love

Dedicated to the staff and students of the Primary School, Borris-in-Ossory

Text adapted from the writings of Catherine McAuley,
foundress of the Sisters of Mercy.

Moira Bergin RSM

R/. Let us love, let us love, let us love one an - o - ther.____

Let us love, love, love an - o - ther.____

1. Let love be our mark of hon-our, let love be our high-est glo - ry.____ R/.

1. Let love be our mark of hon-our, let love be our high-est glo - ry.____ R/.

2. Let us love with mer-cy, com - pass-ion and with kind - ness,____ for

2. Let us love with mer-cy, com - pass-ion and with kind - ness,____ for

we are blest, when we show mer - cy.____ R/.

we are blest, when we show mer - cy.____ R/.

3. If we love with mer-cy, we will bring joy and bring glad ness;____ when we

3. If we love with mer-cy, we will bring joy and bring glad ness;____ when we love with mer-cy we o - pen in each heart a lit - tle hea - ven.____ R/.

love with mer-cy we o - pen in each heart a lit - tle hea - ven.____ R/.

When we love one a - no-ther, we're in one heart and one mind with our God.____ R/.

When we love one a - no-ther, we're in one heart and one mind with our God.____ R/.

Coda

Then let us love.____

Then let us love.____